THE SOUTHWEST LIFESTYLE IS LARGELY BUILT AROUND ITS CULINARY DELIGHTS.

The pleasures of the table are a key part of daily life, from delicious homely dishes to the exceptional creations of the top restaurants. So here are those famous specialities: Caviar from the Dordogne or Gironde, oysters from the Bay or Arcachon, Bayonne ham, foie gras, garbure, poule au pot, chicken stew, veal axoa, piperade, lamprey prepared in the Bordeaux style, of course. Ewe's cheeses of the Pyrenean valleys of Ossau and Iraty, cabécou goat's cheese, cheeses of the Trappist Monastery of Echourgnac. Agen prunes, Landes pastis, apple tourtière of the Lot-et-Garonne, Gateau Basque, Bordeaux canelé. As an aperitif, why not try a Lillet Blanc? After that, there are the world-renowned vineyards of Bordeaux, the Lot-et-Garonne with its Buzet and Côtes-de-Duras, the Landes for their Tursan, the Basque Country and its Irouléguay and Béarn for Béarn-Bellocq, Jurançon and Pacherenc du Vic-Bilh... And then an Armagnac, to bring it all to a perfect finish!
